About the DCSEU

The District of Columbia Sustainable Energy Utility (DCSEU) helps DC residents and businesses use less energy and save money. Since 2011, the DCSEU has delivered financial incentives, technical assistance, and information to tens of thousands of District residents and businesses, helping them to save millions of dollars on their energy costs. Our work is building a brighter economic, environmental, and energy future for the District.

What is the Sustainable Energy Utility?

- ▶ Clean & Affordable Energy Act (2008)
- ▶ Ratepayer-funded, privately operated
- ▶ Performance-based contract to DOEE
- ▶ Designed to help District households, businesses, and institutions save energy and money through energy efficiency and renewable energy programs.

Rise Bakery

Mike Koritko owner of Rise Baker was a Great Streets award winner in 2019. The grant money he received from Great Streets along with the DCSEU rebate, Mike installed a higher efficient AC unit and tankless water heater. The new AC unit allowed Mike to keep his staff cooler after having dealt with temperatures of over 80 degrees while also reducing his electric bill by 20%.

"Saving money on my electric bill, which is definitely my greatest bill, and getting incentives to do it, is like a no-brainer."
